

The Foundation for Faces of Children

Thank you for your interest in the scholarship program of the Foundation for Faces of Children. This scholarship was created to benefit young adults with craniofacial conditions. The award must be used for post-secondary educational purposes and applicants must reside in Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island or Vermont. The scholarship is not open to current board members or board members who have served in the past five years or their family members. All applications will be kept confidential. The deadline for submission is April 1 of each year.

Educational institutions where scholarship funds may be applied

(Optional) Attach a recent photograph of yourself. Submission of a photograph constitutes your agreement that, in the event you are selected as a recipient, the Foundation for Faces of Children is authorized to publish the photograph in its newsletter or on its website or in other publications.

On a separate sheet of paper, please write a short essay (500 words or less), on a topic of your choice, which will help us evaluate you as a scholarship recipient, keeping in mind that our scholarship is awarded on the basis of evidence of character, determination to complete your academic program, academic achievement and involvement in extracurricular activities.

Please provide two (2) letters of recommendation.

Briefly describe your extracurricular activities, hobbies and volunteer activities.

Briefly describe any academic honors or distinctions.

If your essay does not do so, describe yourself in a way that would give us more of an opportunity to know you as a person.

If your essay does not do so, discuss the impact your craniofacial condition has had on your educational experiences.

If your essay does not do so, discuss those personal qualities and abilities that make you the best candidate for the scholarship.

Briefly describe what you hope to be doing ten years from today.

Use the back of this application for additional space, if necessary.

Upon completion, please mail this application to:
